

20170
JUDGE
ROTH
CIVIL DIVISION
CIVIL JURY TRIAL CALENDAR
1/27/2020
9:30 AM
COURTROOM 3F

The following cases will be tried during a two-week trial calendar beginning January 27, 2020, before the Honorable Judge Jay M. Roth in Courtroom 3F. This is a two-week calendar. Trials commence at 9:30 a.m. There will not be a calendar call. Parties need not appear unless called by the court. Cases may not be called in the order published. All cases will remain on two-hour notice. The parties must advise the court as to whether mediation has been conducted. If not, the court will expect the parties to mediate the case prior to January 27, 2020. Parties must contact staff attorney Jeffrey Abrams at 404-613-4139 or 404-613-4330 advising the expected length of trial and telephone numbers of all parties involved. If defendant has a counterclaim, defendant must give a ready announcement in the same manner. Failure of either party to give a ready announcement may result in sanctions. Parties must give a ready announcement every time the case appears on the calendar. Parties must immediately notify the court of any pending motions except in limine. Parties must request a court reporter at least 5 days prior to trial. Failure to do so may result in no takedown. Parties must submit requests to charge limit 15 excluding pattern charges on the morning of trial. Parties must submit a consolidated pre-trial order 1 week prior to trial. If parties cannot agree on a consolidated pre-trial order, each party shall submit an individual pre-trial order. The parties should submit courtesy copies of all pre-trial materials directly to the judge's chambers. This includes 2 copies of all exhibits, marked. The parties will be notified by the court as to the specific time to appear. Failure to comply with any portion of this order may result in sanctions.
